

CAMERA NEWS

MRS. THOMAS R. MARSHALL PRESENTED WITH SILVER SERVICE

Ladies of the U. S. Senate presented Mrs. Marshall, wife of the former Vice-President, with a silver service. The presentation was made at the regular weekly luncheon. During the war the ladies of the Senate organized and held weekly luncheons after which they sewed for the soldiers. The luncheons have been continued and are held in the Senate Office Building each Tuesday.

BEAUTIFUL PALMS IN RIO DE JANEIRO, BRAZIL

The Royal Palms in the Botanical Garden in Rio de Janeiro, Brazil. These "feather dusters of the Gods" were introduced into Brazil one hundred years ago from the Antilles. They have thrived and surpassed any height and beauty of Royal Palm on its original habitat. The Botanical Garden in Rio is one of its most important show places.

PRINCE OF WALES UNVEILS MEMORIAL

The Prince of Wales unveiling the monument in memory of the Indian Soldiers who fought in the World War. This statue has been placed in Brighton, England.

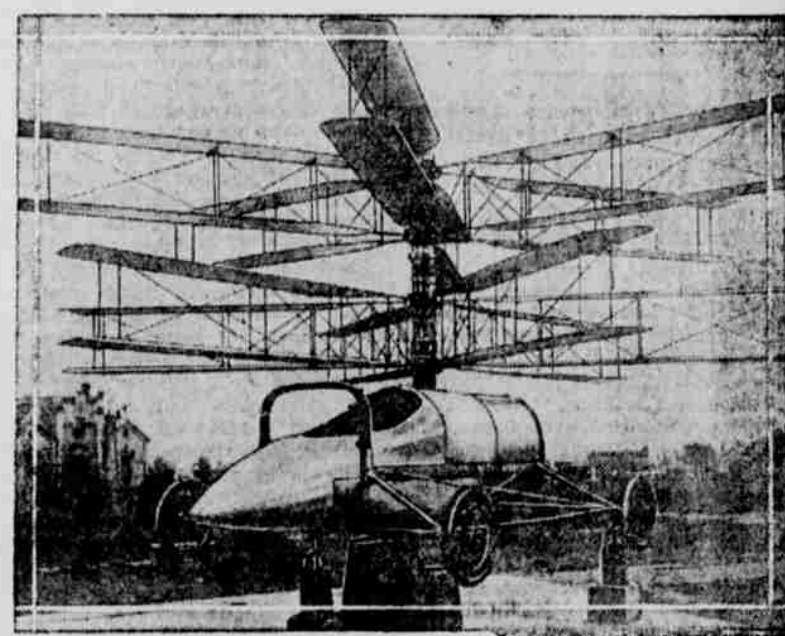

DR. JULIO BIANCHI AND HIS CHILDREN ENJOY AN ENTIRELY NEW EXPERIENCE

In the first snow of the season in the National Capital. This was the first time that any of the family had seen snow. Dr. Bianchi is the recently appointed Ambassador from Guatemala.

CAVALRY IN ACTION

The third squadron of the Third Cavalry going through a strenuous maneuver at Fort Meyer, Va. This is the troop which acted as personal escort for President Harding during the inaugural ceremonies.

A HELICOPTER MACHINE

Latest experiments made with the Helicopter shows the wonderful applicability of the new flying machine which is designed for vertical flight.

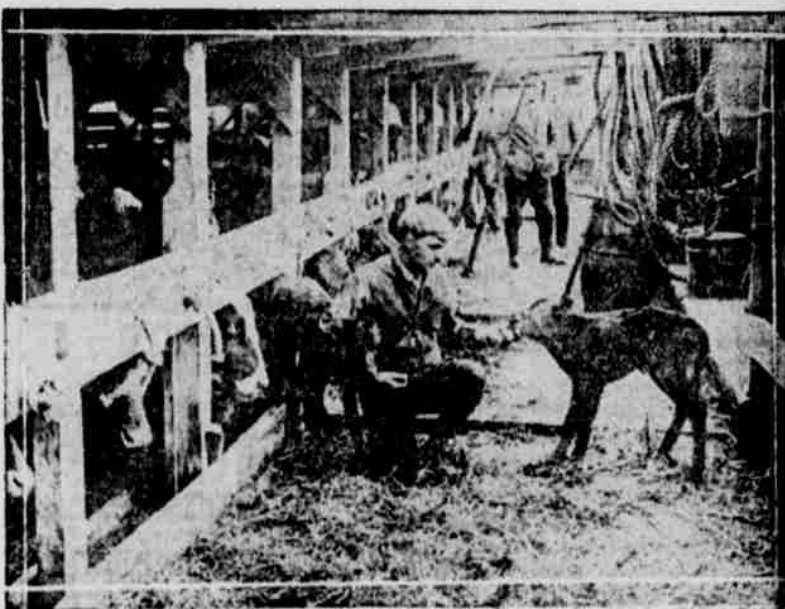

SIR HAMAR GREENWOOD AND LADY GREENWOOD

Photographed at their official residence in the Phoenix Park, Dublin. Sir Hamar Greenwood is Chief Secretary for Ireland.

KING NEPTUNE VISITS THE BATTLESHIP NORTH DAKOTA

The sailors of the Atlantic Fleet observed the time honored custom when crossing the Equator of staging a visit from King Neptune and raising the "Royal Flag". Neptune in a royal sea chariot drawn by sea horses and with a trident in his left hand and a dolphin in his right came over the bow of the ship. The royal party inspected the ship's crew and then held court. Davy Jones and Peg Leg haled offenders before His Majesty. The royal barber inflicted the punishment assisted by two dentists. The guilty ones were given a thorough pickling with the royal grease, then thrown into the royal swimming pool. After the ceremonies Neptune returned to the royal domain under the waters of the Equator.

AMERICAN COWBOYS ARRIVE IN BERLIN

On board steamer "West Arrow," with cows which American farmers have given to Germany.

AMERICAN INTERNATIONAL POLO PONIES

Are already at Tidmouth, England. There is daily practice for the June competition when the American International Polo Team will compete with the English Team for the International Trophy.

SKI RACE DERBY IN SWITZERLAND WON BY BOY OF SIXTEEN

Out of fifteen starters in the ski race for the Kandahar Cup, known as the Derby of British Ski races, R. B. McConnell, 16 years old, won. The race started from the summit of the Schiltgrat and finished at a point just below Murren, Switzerland.

"THE WARDS OF AMERICA"

Soldiers Memorial Monument by Gutzon Borglum. This statue contains forty-two human figures and suggests a review of epochal conflicts from the Revolution to the World War, emphasizing throughout the motive of the defense of liberty, which has always actuated American resort to arms. The memorial is of an immense size and is said to be the largest bronze group in the United States. The famous sculptor has received a commission for the memorial which will be placed by the city of Newark, N. J., in its Military Park.